Re: Abraham Sabel et al v. Faloni Law Group, et al
United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
7:21-cv-06964 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern:

The undersigned represents Defendant First Portfolio Ventures I, LLC (“FPV”) in the above referenced matter. Earlier today Your Honor set an in-person hearing for April 7, 2022 (D.E. 33). I respectfully request that the Court re-set the Hearing. The reason for this request is that I will be out of town from April 7 through the 12th on business and personal matters and unable to attend. Prior to writing the Court I consulted with both Co-Defendant Feloni Law Group and Counsel for Plaintiff, and based on our exchanges propose, with both Counsel’s consent, that the hearing be moved to either April 5th or 6th so as not to interfere with the previously established schedule of the Court.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
BARRON & NEWBURGER, P.C.
